

We Believe in Putting a Stop to Family Violence!

Please tell us your story of how Family Violence affects you and how you would stop it

Southern Chiefs' Organization

Welcomes all Southern First Nation Youth to Participate in a Call for Submissions

• • • • •

Aimed at Reducing Family Violence in your First Nation Community

The Family Violence Prevention & Resource Project (FVP&R) wants you engage youth between the ages 13-25 years old in a Pilot Project that's been developed to bring awareness and discover the talent in our young First Nations Youth. All submissions must be original and contain suitable viewing content for ages 13+.

What can I submit?

- 2-3 page essays
- Music Recordings/Songs
- Song Lyrics
- Videos
- Poetry
- Slideshows

Where do I submit?

Send it to our mailing address at:
Southern Chiefs' Organization
105-1555 St.James Street
Winnipeg, Manitoba
R3H 1B5

Do I need parental consent?

Yes, if you are under 18 we need you to fill out the consent form in the Entry package.

Are there prizes being awarded?

YES, Absolutely! We have a reviewing committee that will review all submitted materials and we will choose 5 winners!

What are the prizes?

We have packages that include SCO stationary and Shirts, Tablets and you will also be highlighted in a news article, on our website and Facebook.

When will the winners be announced?

3 winners will be selected by Feb.28, 2014!

How can I get more information and Entry package?

Check out our website at www.scoinc.mb.ca and Facebook/Southern Chiefs Organization. We will have a download option made available with the entry package and also you may us at our toll-free # if a mail out is required at 1-866-876-9701.

Contact Person: FVPR Coordinator, Nikketa Campbell

Email: nikketa.campbell@scoinc.mb.ca

Phone: (204) 946-1869 ext 107

KEYWORDS:

Words have been provided to assist you with your submissions. (E.g. talent, support, safety and etc)

THEMES:

1. Family violence has a deep effect on everyone.
2. Valuing our First Nations teachings will decrease family violence.
3. Safety is a priority; I will speak out and help others including myself.