

MARCH 27 & 28, 2019

SOUTHERN CHIEFS' ORGANIZATION

Southern Chiefs' Organization Inc. (SCO) in partnership with Manitoba Victims Services and the Long Plain First Nation will be hosting a gathering March 27 & 28 2019 for youth affected by the issue of Missing and Murdered Women and Girls (MMIWG). This 2 day gathering will focus on resiliency and capacity-building and will allow youth from our member communities to share, learn more about resources, and how to support others, both emotionally and culturally, as part of our collective healing journey.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE:

30 youth ages 16 to 25 from SCO member communities that are either family members of Manitoba's Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls or youth from SCO member communities that are affected by the issue and would like to learn more about resources and how to support others. (*Please note - a chaperone is required for those under the age of 18).

DETAILS:

- On-site traditional support available
- All meals, mileage and accommodations for the event will be provided to participants
 - Childcare available (for the parents of small children, please let us know if this is required and if you will be bringing your little one)
- Bus transportation to the KKMQ and community on Days 1 & 2 of the event will be provided
 - Please bring your own toiletries and bathing suit

PLEASE CONFIRM YOUR REGISTRATION BY FRIDAY, MARCH 1, 2019
